7. Liquor License: Motion made by Burton Whitman and seconded by Richard Peat to sign the Liquor License for Stress Free. Motion carried 4-0.

8. John Contreni: Public Safety Building Committee: John spoke on behalf of the 11 member committee. Committee visited several other safety building in the area. Received 3 RFP's. Littlefield bowed out because of schedule didn't fit theirs. Bowman and Sheridan left. Committee met with both of them. Committee decided they liked the design/build concept. Reason it is less expensive and speeds up process. Committee met on 09/01/22 to go over the two remaining RFP's. Decided on Sheridan for the following reasons: 1. Quality of presentation. 2. Larger company with engineering in house. 3. Cost Sharing/ 100% back to town. 4. Cost for Prelim Phase, 27,070 design. 5. Could work with time line. 6. Have plan for apparatus in winter months. 7. Will have a project manager on scene. Motion made by Newton Pierce, seconded by Richard Peat to move ahead with Sheridan.
